Second Class Requirement 9a

"Explain the three R's of personal safety and protection."

(Handbook Page 400)

_____ Name

"1 - RECOGNIZE"

1. How do you spot a potential child molester?
 Most child molesters are black guys.
 Most child molesters are Hispanics.
 I read somewhere that 70% of convicted child molesters are white guys.
2. How do you spot a potential child molester?
 Child molesters are always strangers hanging around playgrounds.
 I read somewhere that most of the time the molester knows his victim, either through friends or family.
3. How do you spot a potentially dicey situation?
 The two of you are in an isolated situation
 "Where did you get those muscles? Do you work out?"
 There's inappropriate physical contact
 There's no enforcement of rules
 "How about a beer?"
 "You look all sweaty. Why don't you take off your shirt?"
 "Want to see this porno movie I rented?"
 All of the above.

"2 - RESIST"

4. True or False: It's time to resist if something is happening that your parents (if they were present) would disapprove of.
5. True or False: It's time to resist if the activity requires you to take off your clothes. (No, we're not talking about getting into your bathing suit prior to a swim.)
6. True or False: It's time to resist if the activity requires you to pose for questionable photographs.
7. True or False: A molester might offer an alcoholic drink, because it will reduce your ability to resist.

8. ___ True or False: A molester might show you porn, because it will reduce your ability to resist.
9. ___ True or False: A good way to resist is to say loudly, "Stop! Don't do that!"
10. ___ True or False: A good way to resist is move away from the other person.
11. ___ True or False: A good way to resist is leave the premises.

"3 - REPORT"

12. If you report a molester...
 ___ You will be showing courage.
 ___ People will call you chicken.
13. If you report a molester...
 ___ You might be able to prevent him from molesting someone else.
 ___ People will say you rat on your buddies and can't be trusted.
14. If you report a molester...
 ___ Someone might be able to help the victim if he/she has been physically or emotionally harmed.
 ___ Don't do it. There's no sense getting involved.
