Tenderfoot Requirement 2c
"Explain the importance of eating together as a patrol."

_____ Name

(Choose 1 correct answer)

1. In the Bible they say things like "The man and his guest broke bread together". Why don't they just say, "They sat down and ate together?" What's the difference?

 There is no difference.

 To "break bread together" implies hospitality, friendship, and fellowship along with the food.

2. Which is better?

 Everyone in the Patrol should sit together when they eat. This builds up a feeling of fellowship and teamwork. We should "break bread together".

 It doesn't matter if everyone in the Patrol goes off and eats by himself. The important thing is that everyone gets fed.
