=====

1. The video starts out with a lady who survived having a stroke. Fill in the blank with what she says: "A stroke is like a heart attack. It's a _____."

2. The lady told us that either of two things might happen inside the brain that could cause a stroke. What did she call them?

 A stroke can be caused by a _____

 A stroke can be caused by a _____

3. The scene shifts to a shopping mall, where an actor give a realistic picture of a guy who suffers a stroke and collapses to the floor. The video then flashes four informative title cards. Fill in the blank from these two title cards:

 "Prompt diagnosis and treatment within _____ can save lives and prevent disabilities."

 "Time lost is _____."

4. One more title card. Fill in the blanks. "An introduction to FAST"

F = _____

A = _____

ST = _____

5. In question #2, above, we saw that there are two conditions in the brain that can cause a stroke. The video shows another guy who is a stroke survivor and who tells us which of the two conditions caused his stroke. What was it?

6. The stroke survivor above said that it took too long before he received any help. He said, "A blood clot got into my brain and killed half my brain." He said, "Had I been taken to a hospital straightaway... " What would have happened in the hospital that would have helped this victim?

7. Back to the shopping mall where a second actor spots the stroke victim and decides to help by performing the FAST test.

For "F", the helper says to the victim, "Can you _____ for me?"

For "A", the helper says to the victim. "I'm going to hold up both your arms and then I'm going to let them go. When I let them go, I want you to _____."

For "ST", the helper asks the victim a few basic questions.

"Can you tell me _____?"

"Do you know where _____?"

8. The victim in the mall failed all three FAST tests. Does a victim have to fail all three before you call 9-1-1? (Choose one)

___ Yes, the victim has to fail all three FAST tests before you call 9-1-1.

___ No, any one FAST test failure is enough to trigger a 9-1-1 call.
